

Current Events Categories

CATEGORY	DESCRIPTION
Advances in Technology	Questions will ask about new technological inventions; groundbreaking computer software or programs; and new devices.
Business	Questions will ask about Fortune 500 companies recent activities.
Criminals, Crimes, and Punishment	Questions will ask about crimes and criminals, including terrorists, terrorist groups, shooters, prison escapees, runaways and other major criminals.
Entertainment	Questions will ask about topics below: Movies and Television Shows Actors/Actresses Video Games/Digital Games Music, Musicians & Music Services, that won awards or broke records or were in the popular culture for additional reasons
Natural Disasters	Questions will give clues to identify what disaster occurred or where it occurred. Details in the questions should help players differentiate between similar disasters.
Obituaries	Questions will ask the names of famous people who died by describing important events from their lives or the manner of their deaths.
Places in the News	Questions would seek the identification of place names. Clues would detail what occurred to make the place newsworthy.
Science, Space & Medicine	Questions would ask about scientific discoveries, important medical breakthroughs, outbreaks of major diseases, discovery of cures to major diseases, important events in astronomy/space and the names of probes sent to space.
Sports	Most questions would focus on the major college and professional American Men/Women sports: Football, Baseball/Softball, Hockey, Basketball, Golf & Tennis. Could include one question per tournament on the following sports: American auto racing (NASCAR or Indy), American horse racing (Triple Crown events only), World Cup Soccer, or Olympics (during Olympic years).
World Leaders	Questions would seek the identity of presidents, rulers of a country or famous people who have a role in politics, or the countries they represent.